

Syrian Crisis, Syrian Refugees – The Cases of Jordan and Lebanon

Roundtable | 18 September 2018

- 9:30 – 9:45 Welcome and Opening Remarks by Professor Anoush Ehteshami
- 9:45 – 10:45 Juline Beaujouan (Durham University) – Overview of the Syrian Refugee Crisis in Jordan and Lebanon
- 10:45 – 11:00 Tea and Coffee Break
- 11:00 – 12:00 Panel #1 – The Government’s Response to the Syrian Refugee Crisis
- . Prof. Musa Shteivi (Center for Strategic Studies) – The Jordanian Government’s Policy towards the Syrian Refugee Crisis
 - . Khalil el-Hariri (Carnegie Middle East Center) – The Politics of Lebanon’s Syria Refugees Policy: Analyzing at the Regional, National, and Local Levels
- 12:00 – 13:00 Panel #2 – The Role of NGOs and INGOs in the Syrian Refugee Crisis
- . Eyas Ghreiz (Adam Smith Foundation) – The Syrian Refugee Crisis in Jordan: Between Challenges and Future Opportunities
 - . Tala Ismail (American University of Beirut) – Examining Lebanese Stakeholders’ Frames with Regards to the Syrian Refugee Crisis – Drawing from the MedReset Recursive Multi-stakeholder Consultations
- 13:00 – 14:00 Lunch
- 14:00 – 15:00 Panel #3 – The Impact of the Syrian Refugee Crisis on Local Populations
- . Chadi Nachabe (City Council of Tripoli) – The Local Effects of the Syrian Crisis in Lebanon
 - . Prof. Michelle Pace (Leiden University) – The Young and the Exiled: Refugee Children in Lebanon
- 15:00 – 15:30 Tea and Coffee Break
- 15:30 – 17:00 Debate – The Syrian Refugee Crisis: Consequences and Perspectives
- 17:00 – 17:15 Concluding Remarks