

Every June the LGBTQ+ community celebrates Pride in a number of different ways. Across the world marches, parties and protests are held in support of the LGBTQ+ community. Durham holds its own Pride event during the first weekend in June.

Make your own rainbow decorations (such as a paper plate rainbow) to show your support and solidarity with the LGBTQ+ community!

